

For Immediate Release

January 26, 2016

Contact: Ann S. Gooding, Dir. Communications

401.272.3367 (o) 401.228.4846 (c )

MEDIA ALERT

BUS RIDES TO NH FOR HILLARY RESUME THIS SATURDAY, JANUARY 30
State Party Coordinating Service for Presidential Campaigns as Requested

WARWICK, R.I. – Joseph M. McNamara, Chair of the Rhode Island Democratic Party announced Tuesday the Party will resume free bus service to New Hampshire for the Get Out the Vote (GOTV) effort of the Hillary Clinton campaign for president beginning this Saturday, January 30. Service will also run on February 6 – the weekend before the Granite State’s Presidential Preference Primary, and on Primary Day, February 9. (Coordination of bus service is offered to all presidential campaigns if requested.)

Buses will depart the Warwick state party headquarters, at 200 Metro Center Boulevard, at 8 a.m. and return by early afternoon. A free box lunch will be provided to participants, by the campaign.

Preregistration is requested: 401.272.3367 or ridemocraticparty@gmail.com.

***COVERAGE INVITED*****

**###